Happy New Year!

DC's Report:

Dear Members,

Happy New Year! Wow, that seems like so long ago now and we are just about to wrap up January.

February is looking to be a big month for MPPC. Our first rally for 2021 is being held just a day shy of February on January 31, and even though RSVP's were slow to come in initially, the final run has made our rally attendance quite healthy. We do appreciate the RSVP's in a timely fashion as we have coaches booked early and we nearly cancelled 2 coaches based on initial numbers this time around – lucky we held off, otherwise we might have been scrambling.

Our Annual Dressage Competition is being held on February 7 so if you have not booked your attendance and intend to come along to compete, please sort your entries early as numbers are limited. From Advanced to Grade 6, this is a really friendly competition and a great one for our Grade 6 riders to have a go at.

Mini Mornington Horse Trials which are for Grade 5 & 6 riders is being held on February 28 and this is a fabulous event for those just starting to dip their toe in the water with Cross Country competition, and for our Grade 6 riders, it is a great one to start on. We will also be having a working bee prior to Mini Mornington to clean up the Cross Country course and grounds in general, this is the first big opportunity to knock some hours off the Club Enhancement Levy.

I also wanted to give a shout-out to some families who have been valued members of our club over the past few years and are moving on.

Veerman Family – Marjanne, Harry, Sophie & Madelon – a very big thank you for all your help over the years of your membership, we could always rely on you to pitch in when required.

Malkoc Family – Fatima, Joe, Alanna & Eva – Thank you so much for your help in the canteen and all the help maintaining the grounds – so very much appreciated.

Rae Family – Nicky, Jeremy and Lily – Such a huge help with our events and cleaning up the grounds, Nicky's time on our committee, all is very much appreciated.

Rogers Family – Sharon and Caitlin – A huge thank you for all the help with Card Secretary position and the general help around the club.

Ella Smith Family - Neil, Michele & Ella - all the assistance at our events, rallies and working bees.

We wish all families and riders moving on from our club all the best and no doubt we will see you around the circuit.

Looking forward to seeing everyone on Sunday for rally,

Marisa
